

JUST RELEASED BOOK!!!

We are pleased to announce that WestConn Chapter member and former Tower Operator Steve McEvoy has authored a one of a kind book on interlocking towers called “The Classic Railway Signal Tower”. Steve tells the fascinating story of interlocking towers and the men and women who staffed them by focusing on New Haven Railroad Signal Station 44 including its transformation into the SoNo Switch Tower Museum.

The 166-page soft cover book retails for only $35.00.

Special price of $35.00 includes S&H.

Several WestConn Chapter members assisted Steve on this project and provided photos for the book.

Also included in the book are many photos taken by former New Haven Railroad tower operator and longtime WestConn Chapter member, the late, T. J. Donahue.
